

JUAN YAN

WENWEN SUN

DR.DANIELE
CANNATELLA

DR. MARIETTA
HAFFNER

DR.IR. MAURICE
HARTEVELD

PROFESSOR
DAVID VARADY

SEMINAR CHAIR

DR. MARIETTA HAFFNER, a senior researcher in Delft University of Technology, Faculty of Architecture and the Built Environment, OTB-Research for the Built Environment. Marietta has more than two decades of experience in conducting European comparative studies that cover subjects in housing finance and economics, housing policy, taxation and affordability.

SPEAKERS

JUAN YAN, PhD: Social housing in China and Netherlands

WENWEN SUN, PhD: A cross-cultural perspective on collective planning and complexity: The case of redeveloping the historical urban area in Beijing

DR.DANIELE CANNATELLA: Drosscape as a raw material for the implementation of Green-Blue infrastructure

MENTOR GUESTS

DR.IR. MAURICE HARTEVELD, an urban designer, architect and planner working in Delft University of Technology and Amsterdam Institute for Advanced Metropolitan Solutions. Maurice is specialized in urban design and the architecture of the city, with a focus on public space.

PROFESSOR DAVID VARADY, Professor in the School of Planning, University of Cincinnati. He is specialized in Housing Systems, Planning Theories, Theories of Urban Spatial Structure, and Social Justice.

HABITAT

Time: 12:00-14:00, Nov. 27

Venue: Architecture and the Built Environment (A+BE) BG.Oost.490

全球视野 中国目光 城市化的进程正在世界各个角落发生《城市中国》邀请你一起倾听他们的声音

With glocal perspectives, Urban China, the first magazine in urbanism of China is to build a platform for international academics in urban studies to share insights in the panel series Come and meet like-minded people around the world or register to be a future speaker!